TILL SPIELHOFF

DOP / Cinematographer

Professional Memberships: ASC - Australian Cinematographers Society

Till worked for over two decades with award-winning film and TV production teams in Berlin, London, and across Australia before settling in the Margaret River region south of Perth. He started his career in the sound department, gaining experience across a multitude of fields such as TV drama, commercials, and live broadcasting before taking up cinematography. Till runs a boutique production house producing TVC's, branded content, and promotional films. His career path has equipped Till with a broad base of knowledge across different disciplines that lets him understand each department's needs on the ground when leading his team. His down-to-earth nature is complemented by his German efficiency and eye for intriguing details. Till has his own cinema production kit which can be added to any production. Available for work in Southwest WA, Perth, and Australia wide.
